The Duquesne Club will give a dance at Beabout hall next Tuesday evening.

Clerk Hook yesterday issued a marriage license to Henry Long, aged 40, and Sarah A. V. Ritchie, aged 22, both of this city.

This evening the anniversary of Zane's loss of Honor will be celebrated in a very attractive way at Odd Fellows' hall.

The council committee on police will hold a regular meeting this evening. The prices of winter helmets for the force will be submitted.

The Exchange bank has contracted with Robert W. Kyle for the most elaborate gas and electric fixtures, of a special design, ever put in this city.

The attraction at the Opera House next Wednesday evening will be John Griffith as "Faust." He has been seen here before and made a good impression.

Last evening Alf Boring was arrested. He was the fighter who got away, the other night, when Officer Michaels landed the man he had the fight with.

This evening the "Six Beauties" will give a select hop at the Beabout hall, on Woods street, south of Sixteenth. A very enjoyable time is promised to all who attend and good order is guaranteed.

El Henry's minstrels, at the Opera House Saturday afternoon and evening, will no doubt draw full houses. The company is one of the best that has been on the road in recent years, and Mr. Henry's own reputation is among the highest.

The Opera House orchestra got home yesterday from Clarkburg, where it made music Wednesday, on the occasion of the brilliant Lowndes-Goff wedding ceremony. As it always does, the orchestra added much to the pleasure of the occasion.

A large force of men are at work on the new long distance telephone line between Steubenville and Wheeling via Bridgeport. The line is a first class one in every respect. It is on the Wheeling & Lake Erie Railroad Company's right of way a part of the distance and for the use of this company strung the railroad wires on its poles a portion of the way and the railroad poles were cut down.

In the Courts.

In the circuit court yesterday in the case of Charles Taylor, Jr., administrator, vs. Laura M. Stengle et al., an order was entered referring the matter to George R. E. Gilchrist as special commissioner.

In the case of Charles R. Miller, guardian, vs. John Miller et al., an order was entered directing that the deed be corrected.

Implicated in the Robbery.

Yesterday afternoon William O'Donnell was arrested by Lieut. Ingram over at Martin's Ferry, on a charge of being implicated in the robbery of Harry McNamee's jewelry store last week. He had been selling articles which were identified as having been stolen from the store. He came to this side of the river and was locked up to await a hearing.

Local Bond Bidders.

Among the successful bidders for the new United States bonds in this vicinity were the following: Bank of Ohio Valley, Wheeling, $9,000 at 114; Commercial bank, Martin's Ferry, $5,000 at 112 1/2; National Exchange, Steubenville, $20,000 at 112 1/2; First National, Cadiz, $20,000 at 114; Fourth National, Cadiz, $10,000 at 112; Harrison National, Cadiz, $25,000 at 112; H. Police Shops Raided.

Last night the police raided the police rooms of George Saddle, on the upper market square, and arrested the proprietor and two writers, Clyde Moore's on Water street, where he and one writer and one player were arrested; John Ryan, on Eleventh street, where he, one writer and one player were also captured, and William Windsor, on South street, where the proprietor and one writer was arrested; and William Gundling, on Sixteenth street, where he and one writer were found.

For Stoning a Train.

Robert Peel was arrested here by Special Officer Short, of the Baltimore & Ohio road, the other night, on a charge of stoning a passenger train on that road at Washington, Pa. He was found in the company's yard here, waiting for an opportunity to jump on a freight train. He had been put off a train at Washington, which was his provocation to stone the next train. He at first agreed to go back without a requisition, but at the last minute refused, and is still in jail here.

Transfers Recorded.

Clerk Hook yesterday admitted to record transfers of real estate as follows: January 31 by John McCrum and wife to John M. Emmert, for $7,000, part of the McCrum farm, in Triadelphia district.

CAUGHT IN A BELT.

The Terrible Fate of Young Henry Kindelberger Yesterday.

THROWN AROUND A MOVING BELT

Until Hardly a Bone in His Body was Not Fractured—Fellow Workmen Horror Stricken—Hopes were Expressed for the Young Man's Recovery, but Death Ended His Sufferings Shortly After Noon—A Well Liked Young Man.

Yesterday morning a terrible accident occurred at the plant of the Wheeling Iron and Steel Company in lower Benwood, resulting in the death, after several hours of agony, of Henry Kindelberger, a young unmarried man, who lives with his widowed mother in North Wheeling.

Kindelberger was employed as a machinist. At 8 o'clock yesterday morning he was at work adjusting a pulley belt in the blooming mill. The work is rather hazardous, but is done every day. While at the work young Kindelberger's foot slipped and in a second he was being whirled about on the moving belt. At every revolution he would strike the pulley attachments when the noise of cracking bones could be heard by the few horrified fellow workmen who were on the scene. At once as possible the machinery was stopped and young Kindelberger removed to Eskey's emergency hospital in Benwood, where Dr. McLaughlin and Dr. McDonald did all possible to alleviate the sufferings of the unfortunate young man. It was found that both legs had been broken in several places, the left arm badly fractured and eight ribs crushed, besides serious internal injuries, the exact extent of which could not be at once determined. The young man was in a semi-conscious condition and suffered intense agony. At first it was thought he might possibly survive until the left arm and both legs could be amputated, steps considered absolutely necessary to save his life. Toward noon, however, the injured man's condition became worse, and death relieved his sufferings between 12 and 1 o'clock.

Young Kindelberger was only about twenty years of age, was steady in his habits and was well liked by a large circle of acquaintances who sincerely regret to hear of his untimely death. He lived with his mother, Mrs. Laura Kindelberger, on Main street, North Wheeling. He was a nephew of County Commissioner Jacob Kindelberger and a cousin of City Receiver John A. Kindelberger.

B. B. DOWENER CLUB

Reorganized for the Campaign—Ritchie District Republicans Set a Good Example to Their Brethren Elsewhere.

The Ritchie and Triadelphia district Republicans have set a good example to the Republicans of the whole county by donning their working clothes early and getting themselves in shape for the coming campaign. They took the initiative in the memorable campaign of 1894, it will be remembered, and were in the fight long before any nominations were made. How much for good this policy of organizing early counted may be read in the election returns of that year.

They believe in doing work that counts for something, and so it was that the call of the executive committee of Ritchie district was responded to by a large and enthusiastic assemblage last night at Handlan's hall to reorganize the B. B. Dowener Club, which did such effective service for the cause of protection in the last campaign.

About one hundred voters signed their names to the roll call last night in a very short time, and there are assurances that several hundred more will attach themselves before the campaign is very far advanced. All the old members will, of course, be in with the new voters recruited from the ranks of the Democracy and the young men who have become of voting age in the past two years.

The club got down to business by electing the following officers as a temporary organization:

President, Adolph Fritz; secretary, H. I. Freese; committee of arrangements, Joseph Freese, Albert O'rum and Robert E. Epp; librarian, Joseph H. Freese. Captain W. H. Travis, Capt. George W. Robinson and E. P. Wheat, who were present as visitors, were called upon and made brief and appropriate speeches, which were heartily received, after which the club adjourned to meet at the call of the temporary president for permanent organization.

The Republicans of Triadelphia district met last night at Klimm's hall, Elm Grove, and took preliminary steps toward organizing a campaign club this spring. Mr. H. C. Richards, vice president of the West Virginia League of Republican Clubs, was present and spoke of the importance of organization early in the campaign and of the advisability of having delegates appointed to the coming meeting of the state league in Charleston next April. Another meeting is to be held next week when organization will be effected.
